

NORTHWEST TUCSON PET ADOPTION EVENT

SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 2011 – 9 am ~ 2 pm

77 North Marketplace, 16733 N. Oracle Rd.

in Catalina

The 2nd annual Pet Adoption Event is coming to Northwest Tucson on Saturday, April 9th, 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. The event will be held at 77 North Marketplace located on the west side of Oracle Road in north Catalina, approximately five miles north of Tangerine Road and across from Eagle Crest Ranch, and is sponsored by two SaddleBrooke animal support groups. Organizers Leslie Rocco, the “Rescue Me Lady”, and Shirley Culliney, Coordinator for Wags and Walkers, want to promote Tucson animal rescue groups to the SaddleBrooke, Oro Valley, Catalina, and Oracle communities. Approximately 20 local pet rescue groups are expected to showcase 100 pets waiting to be given a chance for a forever home. See our website for a complete list of groups and activities. There will be large and small dogs, cats and kittens, purebred and mixed, young and old. Our hope is you will find your perfect match.

Food vendors for people and vendors of pet-related supplies and services will also participate. So stop by to pet a pup or cuddle a kitten. Even if you don't adopt, support the efforts of these amazing rescue groups by donating to the Towel, Blanket, and Pet Food Drive or buy a 50/50 Raffle ticket to support future adoption events.
